

Remedy for Rio Bonito.
An inquiry to trade Rio Bonito lands in Butte county, California, for two or three town lots, or for a house and lot in Reno. It is believed that Rio Bonito property will increase in value 100 per cent within two years. There are no richer lands in the world than the Feather river bottom lands, good for oranges, lemons, peaches, apricots and other fruits without irrigation. This is an excellent opportunity for speculation, or to get a home in one of the best spots in California. Will be in Reno for a few days, and will be pleased to meet all those who wish to avail themselves of this opportunity.

Give Them a Chance!
That is to say, your lungs. Also your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air passages, but the tiny ends of the tubes and capillaries leading from them. When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well. Call it cold, cough, croup, or any of the names, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All coughing and getting of colds is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take the medicine from the throat, and let it go down to the lungs, where it will do the most good. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend upon it.

Cure for Croup.
Nothing is so known by moisture like perspiration, producing a very disagreeable moisture after getting warm. This form, as well as skin, bleeding and protruding piles, yield at once to the application of Dr. Ross's "Pile Remedy," which acts directly upon the part affected, absorbing the tumors, allaying the inflammation, and effecting a permanent cure. 50 cents a bottle. The Ross Medical Co., Reno, Nev. 1y

Dr. Ross's Kidney.

It is exceedingly pleasant to the taste, perfectly harmless and does not sicken. In all cases of Consumption, Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, and Pains in the chest, it has given universal satisfaction. Dr. Ross's Kidney and Lung Syrup is sold at 50 cents by S. J. Hodgkinson & Co., Reno, Nev. 1y

Backache's Arsenic Remedy.
The best cure in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is in all cases of skin disease, or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by Hodgkinson & Co. 1y

Merit Will Tell.
Was never better demonstrated than when "Fryer's Absorbent Remedies" were awarded diplomas at the last California State Fair at Sacramento, and at the Mechanics Institute at San Francisco. Wm. F. Fryer is a physician, and he offers to return your money if they do not give satisfaction. In buying, be sure the facsimile signature of Dr. Fryer on each box, as none are genuine without it. 1y

An Absolute Cure.

BETTY SKELTON KNEW JAKE LYNCH
Her Oldest Girl and His Oldest Boy Were the Same Age to a Day.

"You know the defendant in this case, do you?" asked a Kansas lawyer of a female native of the soil.
"Know which?" asked she.
"The defendant, Jake Lynch."
"Do I know Jake Lynch?"
"Yes."
"You want to know if I know Jake Lynch—well, if that ain't a good one. Why, mister, the Lynch family an'—"
"Can't you say 'yes' or 'no'?"
"Why, Jake Lynch's mother an' my stepdad's father was once first cousins, an'—"
"Then you know him?"
"Who, Jake Lynch? Me know Jake Lynch? You're a stranger in these parts, ain't you?"
"That has nothing to do with the case. If you know Jake Lynch, say so."
"If I know him! Lemme tell you that Jake Lynch's birthday and my brother Hiram's is on the same day, an'—"
"You know him, or do you know him?"
"Who—Jake Lynch? Ask Jake if I know him! Ask him if he was ever interlocked to Betty Skelton."
"I don't care to ask him anything. I simply want to ask you if Jake Lynch is known to you personally."
"Personally? Well, I don't know what you mean 'personally,' but if you want to know if I know Jake an' he knows me, I can tell you in mighty few words. Jake Lynch's father an' my father—"
"Now, I want you to say 'yes' or 'no.'"
"That's just what I do want."
"Well, then, lemme alone an' I'll tell you all about it. Jake Lynch was born in Indiana an' I was born in the same county an'—"
"And of course you knew him?"
"Who—Jake Lynch? Do I know Jake Lynch, when the very first he rode here on one he traded my man a pair of young steers for? Why, man, Jake's wife was Ann Eliza Skiff, an' her an' me was the same age to a day, an'—"
"That will do. I see that you know him."
"Know him? Know Jake? Why man—"
"That will do."
"Well, I was married on a Chewday an' Jake was married the next day, an' his oldest boy an' my oldest girl is most the same age, an'—"
"That will do."—Chicago Tribune.

SOME SCANTILY OLAD PEOPLE.
Description of the Female Attendants in New York Baths—Healthy and Vigorous Young Women.

The attendants present the most picturesque appearance, being clothed only in a short tunic of white cotton, caught on one shoulder, falling away from the other down under one arm, and reaching to the knee.
These girls are very beautiful in form, their round, shapely limbs gleaming white, like marble, and soft to the touch as a baby's skin. Not an ounce of superfluous flesh encumbers them, but why, as they are so young, they are not an outline of bone or joint mark the fair roundness of shoulders and limbs.
They seldom know disease of any kind, and are splendid specimens of physical strength and symmetry.
On first engaging in work of this kind they lose flesh rapidly, and become very much emaciated each day, but when accustomed to the work they regain their normal weight and experience only a feeling of lassitude, from their long exposure to the heat, which passes away after an hour's rest. Their hands are never exposed to any other kind of work, and are as soft as velvet, supple, firm and exquisite touch.
In the Russian bath the chief attendant, a lithe, vigorous girl, with a crop of kinky brown hair that curled all the tighter in the steam and heat, wore a very unique and original costume of Turkish towels. Two towels were knotted by the fringe at the corners on one shoulder, passed underneath the other arm, and were again tied by the corners on one hip. Two more towels knotted by the corners on each hip formed the abbreviated skirt of this striking regalia.

GOOD MANNERS.
Regard to Courtesy as a Test of Social Quality.

The higher a person rises in the Old World the better his manners. No one is so respectful of an engagement to meet other people as the crowned head. Queen Victoria would not appoint an hour to meet a lady and go away and forget it.

This carelessness of forms and ceremonies may be ignorance; probably it is, but it is an ignorance which is culpable. Probably the reverse is true. A newly-made monarch commits the errors which marked the career of Sancho Panza on the Isle of Barataria. His new wife had made him drunk, and he insults the people to show his greatness.

No American citizen should allow his family to come up without some idea of good manners, for there is no end to the privileges of those who have good manners; no remuneration could cover those from which a person is debarrd by the lack of good manners.

It is the duty of every educated American to disseminate this knowledge. It is the duty of every uneducated American to condescend to learn it.

"Merit, without manners, is a flower without perfume, or a tree without leaves."

We smiled recently at the following quick repartee:
The Rev. W. N. Brodbeck—"How happens it, Heaven, your father was the most radical of men and you are the most conservative?"

The Rev. W. I. Haven—"I am as radical as my father. The only difference is that you slow fellows have just got up to us."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Overcoming His Brain.
Old Mrs. Bentley—"Did yehear, Josiah, that the young student who has been boardin' at the Hendrickses is very sick?"

Old Mr. Bentley—"Yes, I heard so; what's the trouble with him?"

Old Mrs. Bentley—"Stomach trouble, I s'pose. (The doctor says he's got to remove the contents of the stomach.)"

FOR PRESIDENT,
 BENJAMIN HARRISON,
 Of Indiana.
 FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
 LEVI P. MORTON,
 Of New York.

WEDNESDAY JULY 11 1888

A BRIEF four years lease of power has wrought marvelous changes in the tone, position, as well as declared intentions of the Democratic party, and these changes, it behooves the voter to contemplate in forming a just estimate of the results which will be attained by an extension of power. Whoever reads the history of the Democratic convention at St. Louis and examines the result of those deliberations as embodied in the platform can no more doubt but that the free trade majority of the party has at last come boldly forward and assumed absolute domination and control of its affairs than he can doubt that this majority kept itself in the background until its chief end was attained by the election of Cleveland.

That President Cleveland's utterances and acts mean free trade and nothing but free trade there are few even in his own party bold enough to dispute. Such is the opinion of the whole Republican party, such is the expressed conviction of a large majority of his own party, such is the unanimous verdict of the whole press of England, which, next to ourselves, is most interested in the issue, and as against all this no word of protest or denial from him is anywhere heard. As the London Times puts it: "It would hardly be possible to put the free-trade case more clearly or more strongly, and yet such is the force of words that President Cleveland shrinks from the use of the term free trade, in fact he declares that those who taunt him with being a free trader are wrong. Free trader appears to be equivalent in the language of American political controversy to an enemy of the workingman and industrial enterprises. That it should be so is one of the curiosities of politics and an extraordinary instance of the power of a phrase, even over minds which are commonly shrewd and reasonable, for it is certain that the arguments which President Cleveland urges are those which Cobden used to employ forty-five years ago, and which any English free trader would employ now."

THE New York Tribune says editorially: "Oregon's overwhelming vote for protection reminds Californians that they have wool growing and many interests which the Democratic tariff would strike down. The Mills bill would cut off the duty on the wool which California raises, about forty million pounds. On fruits, of which California ships an enormous quantity to the Atlantic markets, the duty of two cents a pound on foreign raisins now gives some advantages to American growers, although forty million pounds are even now brought from Europe at that duty, but if it were repealed the freight on raisins from Europe is only eight cents a box, while from California to New York the freight is thirty-eight cents a box, a difference sufficient to shut the products of the Pacific Coast out of the Eastern markets entirely. To the Golden State the success of Cleveland and his policy means a loss of two millions of dollars or more a year in the value of wool alone, beside some millions more in the value of fruits, wine, nuts and other products. The Democrats themselves no longer imagine California will vote against her own prosperity."

You never can satisfy the Democrats. The New York World declares that it is tired hearing the absence of Cleveland's war record discussed and suggests: "Suppose we drop the war and talk about the tariff." On the Pacific Coast the Democrats are so weary of the tariff that they hail even a no-record with delight.
 —Mayor Hewitt of New York says that he cannot endorse all the dogmas of the American party.

REPUBLICAN CLUBS.

What They are Expected to Do in Border Southern States.

NEW YORK, July 11.—Secretary Humphrey of the National League Republican Club, with several assistants, is endeavoring to keep up with the mass of club business that is coming in by every mail. Since the National Convention the club movement has taken a boom exceeding all expectations. This is particularly the case in the South and this State. In Missouri, for instance, where the Republicans never made a square fight, they have now a State League of clubs representing active organizations in all parts of the State, and to-day an order was received from the State League for 5,000 league handbooks.

In Kentucky the Republicans are confident that they can carry the State through the work of the clubs. Many have been organized and there is great enthusiasm among all the members. In Tennessee the Republicans are at work with vim, and a State League of clubs has been perfected within the last few weeks. Active work has been done lately in Delaware and has resulted in the formation of a State League of clubs. There are 40,000 Republicans in Kentucky who have not voted of late years, and this joined to the fact that the Republicans last year came within 8,000 votes of electing their candidate for Governor, makes the condition of affairs in that State look very encouraging.

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

Two Tennessee Clans Meet and Shoot Each Other.

CHICAGO, July 11.—A dispatch from Knoxville, Tenn., to-day says at a religious meeting at Laurel Park Sunday, there was a collision between two clans who had had a feud for years. About the time the minister commenced his sermon a fusillade of small arms on the outside of the church created great excitement inside the building, and a rush was made for the door, when it was found that Ewell Lawson and his son John, belonging to the one faction, were killed, and that three Fulton boys, Tom, Jim and Enos, and John Porter, belonging to the other, were seriously wounded and many others, whose names could not be ascertained, were more or less seriously wounded. More trouble is expected.

A Mysterious Affair.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, July 11.—The body of Alice Kelly, a woman of bad reputation, was found in the outskirts of the city this morning with her throat cut and head badly beaten. A horse and buggy were hitched to a tree near by the body, which was covered, when found, by a lap robe. The nature of the wounds indicate murder. The woman had been here about one month, and gave Detroit as her home. It is thought she was slain by some person whom she was attempting to blackmail.

Election in Mexico.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 11.—Yesterday the Electoral College voted for President, three members of the Supreme Court, members of Congress and one Senator in each State. No opposition has been made to the re-election of Diaz. The new members belong to the Administration party. Hundreds called on Diaz to offer congratulations. The interest centers in the Congressional elections principally.

Stockmen Hounded.

YREKA, July 10.—Orders from Washington require cattlemen to remove their stock forthwith from the Klamath Reservation in Southern Oregon, and keep them off. The cattlemen of Chewaucan valley and Sprague river are hard at work doing so, to avoid trouble with the soldiers and Indians, although very little feed is used for Indian stock.

Austria's Army.

VIENNA, July 11.—An army bill will be introduced in the autumn providing for an increase of 10,000 men annually of recruits. The present law, which provides that the war strength should be 800,000 men, will be replaced by a clause providing that the army on a war footing should comprise four per cent of the population.

Parnell's Predictions.

LONDON, June 11.—Parnell prophesies an Imperial Parliament in which England, Scotland, Ireland, Wales and the Colonies will be represented, each country having a Legislature to manage its local affairs. He also predicts a Liberal majority in the next House of Commons of 120.

A COMSTOCK SCRAPER.

Coulter Assaults Levy of the Norcross and is Well Throttled.
 SAN FRANCISCO, July 10.—Geo. Coulter, the cranky mining man, was well whipped last night, though the morning papers in reporting the fracas got things all mixed up. Some time ago Coulter borrowed $2,500 of Levy, President of the Hale & Norcross mine, and has not paid him yet. Last night Coulter had been drinking freely, and the idea entered his cranky brain that he had some cause of offense against Levy, who, with Mexico Hoedich, was leaning against a railing near the corner of Sutter and Kearney streets. Coulter had a heavy cane in his hand, and he walked up to Levy and struck him with it. He had to reach around Hoedich to hit Levy, and that broke the force of the blow. Levy rushed at Coulter and punched him in the face with his fists till his eyes were blackened and his nose bleeding. Then Coulter went off home to get his bruises attended to and his face washed. Levy showed a good deal of courage in his close fight with the half drunk, half crazy man.

The Democrats Alarmed.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—The Democratic leaders in the House are beginning to see the folly of their earlier free-trade declarations and are now industriously engaged in hedging. The Oregon election was the first intimation to them that they were on the wrong track, and its significance was duly noted. It is generally conceded that had the Oregon election occurred after the St. Louis Convention, instead of before it, the National Democracy, in Convention assembled, would have unhesitatingly and unqualifiedly endorsed the Mills bill in their platform, and positively declared for free trade.

Cinching the Mormon Church.

SALT LAKE, July 10.—Receiver Dyer made a demand to-day on the Mormon Church for Mormon Church property as follows: 30,000 sheep, value at $2 per head; $75,000 worth of cattle, $27,000 in notes for stock in the theater, $27,000 of the Deseret Telegraph Company's stock, and $100,000 worth of coal lands. These were surrendered, making his total recovery of church property $790,666.

General Sheridan.

NEW BEDFORD, July 10.—It is unofficially announced that Sheridan passed a comparatively comfortable night at his cottage at Nougat, and he is resting quietly to-day. Attendants when questioned as to his condition declined to answer. No official statement will be given to the public until the daily bulletin of the physicians is issued at 8 o'clock to-night.

Near Death's Door.

WASHINGTON, July 11.—Samuel J. Randall was taken seriously ill last night, and for a time was apparently in imminent danger of death. This afternoon, while very weak, he is resting quietly, the acute phase of the trouble having been brought under control.

FREDERICK'S MALADY.

German Physicians Censure Mackenzie's Treatment.
 BERLIN, July 11.—The reports of the German physicians concerning the dead Emperor's case are published. They are long, tediously minute and generally opposed to Mackenzie's treatment.
 Dr. Gerhardt says that he knew it was cancer from the first. He censures Mackenzie's treatment from the beginning to the end.
 Dr. Bergmann thinks Frederick's life would have been saved had a part of the vocal chord been cut out according to his advice. Frederick and his wife were performing the operation should be performed. Bergmann also says he has successfully performed seven such operations in Berlin.
 The German physicians early lost all faith in Mackenzie's treatment and theory. Gieschroetter is sure it was cancer, beyond a doubt.

They Will Try to Defeat Grover.

PITTSBURG, July 11.—The flint and window-glass workers, both having strong organizations, it is stated will take an active part in the Presidential campaign and do their utmost to defeat Cleveland. A conference of labor leaders will be held in New York soon. Dr. McGlynn and his followers are to be admitted.

Their Business Booming.

Probably no one thing has caused such a general revival of trade at Hodgkinson & Co.'s Drug Store as their giving away to their customers of so many free trial bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. Their trade is simply enormous in this very valuable article from the fact that it always cures and never disappoints. Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Bronchitis, Whooping Cough, and all throat and lung diseases quickly cured. You can test it before buying by getting a trial bottle free, large size $1. Every bottle warranted.

Fortify the system by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, a salt the disease peculiar to hot weather. This medicine induces a healthy action of the stomach, liver and kidneys, causing them to prevent the accumulation of the poisons which produce disease.

Asthma and Phthisis are instantly relieved by taking a few doses of Fryer's Asthma Cough Balm. It cures in ten minutes. Price 25 cents. Sold by W. F. Piniger. All genuine Asthma preparations bear the fac-simile signature of D. F. Fryer.

"I have been afflicted with an affection of the throat, a cold, caused by diphtheria, and have used various remedies, but have never found anything equal to Fryer's BALSAM FOR THE THROAT. Rev. G. M. E. Hampton, Elkton, Ky. Sold only in boxes."

NOTINGS.

Business cards at the GAZETTE office.
If you want clipped beef, a good ham, a fresh can of lobsters, or the choice fruits of the season, call at W. M. Havenor's.
J. F. Aiken always delivers orders for food promptly, and always throws in an extra lot of goods. Leave orders at Myers' cigar store.
There is nothing more exhilarating to a man who is in haste than one of J. J. Becker's lunches, with his accompaniment—a good glass of beer.
H. C. Davis is agent for the celebrated Pleasant Valley Coal, the best burning coal in the market, which he is retailing for $13.50 a ton, delivered.
Brookings, the stationer, is wide-awake, and never loses an opportunity to sell a bill of goods. He rarely fails for his prices are put down to the lowest notch.
C. A. Thurston has in stock paper to suit the taste of the daintiest, as well as the article which all classes of professional and business men use.
As age crawls on a stimulant is frequently necessary. It is dangerous to use the bland brand, because, you know, Tattle Dew is pure, and is sold by Pinner.
Latest styles pompons, crescents, sequins, stars, cow-bells, camp kettles, toboggan sleds, milk pails, and fancy ornaments of all kinds at Miss Gibbs', Virginia street.
Parties wishing to can have their mattresses and lounges re-upholstered at their own residence by calling on A. Barnes, Virginia street, opposite the City Hotel.
The Depot hotel is crowded with guests, who are all induced to register at that popular hotel mainly on account of the excellent table set. All the delicacies of the most delicious found on the bill of fare, and are served in the highest style of the culinary art.
Bill Havenor is said to be a potato digger of no mean ability. Owing to the scarcity of the potato crop, yesterday he arrived himself with a grubbing hoe and a bottle of the elixir of life, proceeded to dig the potatoes, and in the course of the day succeeded in procuring two bushels of the most delicious tubers, which he is retailing at his store on Virginia street.

Jeffrey-Lewis Coming.
At McKissick's Opera House next Tuesday evening this charming actress, supported by her own company, will appear, for one night only, in her great character of "Geraldine Calhoun" in the New York success "La Belle Ruse." This will be a treat, especially for the ladies, as they all like this actress. In speaking of Miss Lewis as an actress we can safely say that she is, without a doubt, the only one on the stage of today that can impersonate the line she does. Lots have tried it, but when Jeffrey-Lewis is around they never attempt to play the character she sustains so ably.

A Compensating Providence.
The Enterprise says: In Eastern Nevada the ranchmen who last winter mourned lost sheep have had extra luck this season in the lamb line. There have been twins and triplets by scores, and all are living and thriving in a wonderful manner. The ranchmen say that though the Lord at first afflicted them, he finally rewarded them as he did Job of old in the latter part of his afflictions.

BREVITIES.

Local and General Intelligence.

The GAZETTE appears in a new dress to-day.
Governor Stevenson will arrive from the east about the 20th instant.
There are thousands of minstrels in the world, but only one Dickie Jose.
An assessment of twenty-five cents a share has been levied on Sierra Nevada.
Trout fishing is not good at present at Lake Tahoe. No fish can now be caught near shore.
Miss Clapp of the State University, accompanied by Miss Babcock, departed for San Francisco last evening.
Justice Young, this morning sentenced three worthless vagabonds to the county Jail for twenty days each.
Ed. Reinhart, the Winnemucca merchant, departed for Germany on the 9th inst. He will be absent about five months.
Misses Eva Slesinger and Ella Geiger, school teachers of Virginia, have gone to San Francisco to attend the Educational Convention.
Governor Stevenson of Idaho has offered $1,000 reward for the capture of Samuel Wilson and William Nimmer, the Silver Mountain murderers.
W. J. Hollingsworth has been summoned by telegraph to Reno, where his daughter, Miss Lily Hollingsworth, is lying dangerously ill of consumption.
The appropriation of $25,000 for the construction of buildings for the Indian school at Carson has passed both Houses, and is signed by the President.

Mrs. Frank Culver is under arrest in Tuscarora on a charge of arson for setting fire to the premises occupied by herself and family in that town on the 1st ult.
Mrs. Mary Willott has brought suit in the District Court to annul the marriage now existing between her and Paul Willott, on the grounds of willful desertion, etc.
The Tuscarora Water Company was incorporated in San Francisco July 6th with a capital stock of $5,000. The contract for the pipe has been awarded to a Pittsburgh firm.
Colonel Dickie, Superintendent of the Gray Eagle mine, in Peavine district, goes to San Francisco to-night and will shortly proceed east on business connected with his company.
H. J. Small, formerly of the Philadelphia & Reading Railroad, has been appointed Superintendent of Motive Power and Machinery of the Southern Pacific Company, with headquarters at Sacramento.

The agricultural experiment which have been prosecuted for some time far down on the Colorado Desert show that with water everything known as a desert can be blotted out of existence. It is absence of water alone that makes a desert.
Last evening about 8 o'clock a drizzling rain set in, which continued for about ten hours. Luckily it did not cause any appreciable damage to the new mown hay in the valley, and will prove of great benefit to the stock ranges of the county.
Jeffrey-Lewis, one of the best actresses in the United States, will appear at McKissick's Opera House on the 17th instant, in the great play entitled "La Belle Ruse," in the leading role of which she has no superior. A rare treat is in store for our theater-goers.
The dwelling house of Andrew Westfall, on his ranch about eight miles from Lovelock, was burned last Monday. House, furniture and all else except the clothing the family had on their backs was destroyed. It is said that the accidental discharge of a gun started the fire.
A promenade 1,000 feet long, and ten feet wide, aligning the south bank of the Truckee, is one of the many improvements contemplated by the management of the Riverside hotel. It will be built of stone, and will afford a delightful walk for the guests of this popular family hotel.
Williams (white) and Woods (colored) who had been convicted of murder and sentenced to be hanged on the 21st of this month, overpowered the guards at Blackfoot, Idaho, last Saturday night and escaped. Williams was recaptured by Indians and returned to jail, and they are also hunting for Woods.

The bald-headed sinners of Reno will be pleased to learn that the Kents Stanley Burlesque Company will appear here on the 9th proximo. Their chief claim for patronage lies in the fact that each member of the troupe wears different hosiery and garters, no two being alike, and they are not backward in showing them, either.
Although every seat in the dress circle has been reserved for to-night, arrangements have been made where by several hundred more people can be comfortably accommodated. The Dockstader Minstrels are traveling about the best company now traveling, and those who fail to witness their performance this evening will miss a treat.

The GAZETTE publishes another letter in today's issue from its special correspondent, "Washoe." Of the many interesting letters which appear in these columns from time to time, none are more interesting than those which appear under the signature of "Washoe," who in private and public life is known and esteemed as President Leroy D. Brown of the State University. His modesty has prevented him from signing his articles with his proper name, but the GAZETTE believes in giving "the devil his due."

What Florida People Live On.
"What do you Florida people live on in summer?" "Fish." "What in the winter?" "Yankees." Alas! how many northerners draw their last breath in Florida, slain by that fell destroyer, consumption, who would have lived, had they used at first that marvelous specific for consumption, when not too far advanced, Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—better than hypophosphites and cod liver oil, because more nutritive and tonic; also an invincible liver, corrective and blood purifier, cleansing away all acrid humors (which cause consumption), and all other impurities of the blood, curing glandular swellings, goitre or thick neck, old sores and ulcers. Of druggists.
Don't hawk and blow, and spit, but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Why endure sleepless nights, with that dry hack cough when you have a bottle of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy? It cures the cough, soothes the throat, and gives you a rest. It cures the cold, the catarrh of the throat, and the catarrh of the lungs. It cures the asthma and all bronchial complaints. Sold only in large bottles, at $1. Three for $2. # NORTHERN NEVADA.

A Good Field for Prospectors.

What Professor Fielding says.
In a conversation Monday between Professor F. E. Fielding, chief assayer and metallurgist of the Consolidated Virginia Assay Office, and an Enterprise reporter, Mr. Fielding remarked that Nevada was not "yet half prospected, though some people seem to look upon the country as about worked out." He said: "For some reason our people have ceased to go forth and do good, solid prospecting work. They only occasionally scout out into the hills about town or over toward Washoe lake for half a day or so. A fine field for prospecting is in the northern part of Nevada, up toward the Idaho line. Here is a vast region of country in regard to mineral, the value of which we know next to nothing. They are finding good mines almost everywhere in Idaho, and there should also be good mines found between the Constock region and the mineral fields to the north-west. Our miners are now better posted than ever before in regard to the value of all kinds of ore, and are, therefore, capable of doing better prospecting work, but they seem to give up that kind of work just when they would do best by taking to it in earnest."
Mr. Fielding is confident that should some of our best prospectors fit themselves out for it and make a thorough exploration of Northern Nevada valuable discoveries would be made.

MANAGER PIPER

Again in a Peck of Trouble—The Minstrels All Right.

John Piper, the Constock impresario, is in "a peck of trouble," and blames the GAZETTE for being the cause of it all. The eminent Volapukian endeavor to prove to-day, by Lew Dockstader that he was in no wise to blame for the $1.50 cinch price demanded for reserved seats for the performance, but that genial gentleman disclaimed all knowledge of the matter, and said that if his agent had put the prices up he had not been advised by him of such a proceeding. Furthermore, Mr. Dockstader said that he did not do business that way, and would not countenance any such action on the part of his representative.
John was also much exercised over the republication in the GAZETTE of the Enterprise criticism of the performance of the Minstrels in Virginia City Monday evening, and says "that the Enterprise was school-maid about advertisements" because he gave an advertisement to its contemporaries one day before he honored that journal with a copy. This assertion bears the impress of truth, as the criticism of the Chronicle, one of its contemporaries, gives unstinted praise to the company and performance. The latter criticism is on a par with those of the Bay papers, all of which were very liberal in their praise during the recent engagement of the company in San Francisco.

A Scarcity of Water.

The volume of water in the Truckee has greatly diminished within the past two weeks, the river now being lower than it has been for years past at this season. Although there was a heavy snowfall last winter, but little water has found its way from the mountains to the river, which is attributed to the high winds which prevailed in the early part of spring. They felt harsh and raw to the people of the valley, but in reality they were quite warm when coming over the mountains. The result was the snow was evaporated by them and carried into the clouds, until finally the store of snow was exhausted, with the result that the many streams which have their headwaters in the Sierra. The scarcity of water this season will probably have the effect of attracting the attention of capitalists to the great need of establishing storage reservoirs in the mountains surrounding the valley, and out of evil some good may result.

A Night of Fun.

The Virginia Chronicle of yesterday says: "Dockstader's Minstrels gave a splendid entertainment at the Opera House last evening to the largest audience ever assembled within its walls. The singing of Davis, Jose and Frillman was very fine, and the humorous part exceedingly funny. Lew Dockstader, Billy Rice, Barry Maxwell and Sweatman vindicated their right to the title of the brightest stars on the modern minstrel stage. Perry and Magraw are worthy of particular mention for their amusing and grotesque burlesque soft glove act."
The Minstrels will appear at the McKissick Opera House to-night. Box-seats at General Nasby's, Commercial Row.

Killed by the Cars.

Shortly after 12 o'clock Sunday morning, S. J. Lark, a car-sealer in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company at Winnemucca, was instantly killed by the yard engine running over him. He was one of the first white children born in Humboldt county and has been in the employ of the railroad about three years. He has relatives at San Jose, California, where his mother is now visiting.

They Were All Strangers.

There must have been but few Californians in attendance at the Odd Fellows' picnic at Carson on the 4th instant, if the following item, published in the Enterprise, is true: "On the occasion of the Odd Fellows' picnic on the Fourth, $1,000 was taken in at the bar on the grounds, yet during the whole day all the strong liquors sold amounted to but one gallon and a half."

A SECOND LETTER FROM "WASHOE."

Special Correspondence GAZETTE.]
STEAMER AUSTRALIA.
Pacific Ocean, June 25, 1888.
EDITOR GAZETTE: Last Saturday, in closing my letter, I was able to inform the readers of the GAZETTE that John Forbes would make his debut as a Sunday-school lecturer on completing the circumnavigation of the globe. The Senator tells me to-day that Jim Yerington will take instantaneous photographs of the wonders of the Orient to be used in the preparation of magic lantern slides and that he and Jim will in '88 go on a starting tour throughout the States.

The Australia is a huge, airy, perfectly clean and comfortable steamer of nearly three thousand tons, built at Glasgow, and owned in San Francisco by the Spreckles brothers, who by sugar growing and transportation have amassed gigantic fortunes within the last twenty-five years. Her officers are experienced seamen and thorough gentlemen, and the crew, although they represent a dozen nations, are well disciplined and efficient. The table is provided with the best the San Francisco markets can afford and a good library of books of travel, biography and fiction is free to all "first-class" passengers.
Although there is no apparent use for a surgeon, each steamer of the Oceanic Company is provided with a good one. In our dining saloon is a piano which helps us pass the hours pleasantly when it is too hot, too cold or too breezy on deck. These steamers are all furnished with arrangements by which passengers are enabled to enjoy the benefits of salt water baths. Altogether it may be said that there is no modern convenience for the comfort and health of the traveler which is lacking on an ocean steamer like the Australia.

With a cost but little in excess of first-class hotel charges one may travel around the world. I wonder that those people who are forever seeking health and recreation in long, dusty and wearisome railroad rides do not once in a while take this run down to Honolulu. On shipboard there is no daily paper, no mail, no telegraph dispatches, no anything to worry or worry the mind. Here is the opportunity for complete rest, as well as for the acquisition of much information that can be acquired in no way except by sea-voyaging.
I have been charmed with the gorgeous sunsets that like climaxes at spectacular plays have closed the experience of each day since we left the Golden Gate. If S. S. Cox, in his masterpiece of description, had not exhausted the subject and so discouraged everybody else from undertaking the task, I should try to tell you what a wonderful picture of purple and violet waves, pink, roseate and vermilion clouds of life-like forms resembling forests of palm trees, willow and elm groves, and huge birds, quadrupeds and men, besides skies of amber, gold and turquoise above the opalescent air, a Pacific sunset affords. Then, the full moon was with us on the night of the 23d of June. It rose but a few minutes after the sun had gone down, and the beauty of its rising almost equalled the glory of the sunset. As the moon came above the horizon the eastern clouds reflected all the colors of the rainbow, which the flashing waves caught up and reflected back again in a myriad of dewy prisms. The sea gulls followed us from the Farallones for fifteen hundred miles. The tropic birds then took their place and are journeying with us to the islands. Flying fish by the score are seen on both sides and in front of the steamer. Yesterday we saw an object on the horizon which looked like a handkerchief or a small white flag. Thinking that it might be a shipwrecked sailor, our captain steered out of his course until we were near enough to the supposed signal to discover that it was a floating log or tree, with a limb projecting above the water. The removal of the bark from the limb had left the white wood uncovered, and the rocking of the waves had produced a motion not unlike the waving of a signal of distress. We were more than compensated by the slight loss of time to discover that there was no occasion for our sympathy.

Just now the fire alarm has called all hands to the upper deck and the crew are running aft with buckets. The ship's outfit for extinguishing fires is complete and her sailors are occasionally put through the fire drill which consists of the use of buckets and hose and the lowering of life boats. A sufficient number of which is supplied to accommodate passengers, officers and crew in case of disaster. The Australia's freight on this voyage consists of flour, hay, California fruits, hardware, dry goods and other miscellaneous articles for the Honolulu market and for the South Sea Islands, including supplies for missionary stations.

THE MORNING STAR.

The Congregational Church has built a steamship called the Morning Star which sails among the islands of the Pacific. The Star visits the Sandwich Islands once a year for a cargo of mission supplies. She is now at Honolulu and will take the larger part of this year's cargo from the Australia. I expect to go aboard the missionary ship before her departure next week.

Our run from twelve o'clock yesterday until the same hour today was 284 miles, leaving us but a short sail for the last day of our trip. The Zealandia, a through steamer of the Oceanic line from Sydney to San Francisco, will be due in Honolulu next Saturday. She will carry this letter to you while I am making the journey to the great volcano of Kilauwa and traveling elsewhere among the islands. I shall not hear from Reno until my return to California.

WASHOE.

TO IRRIGATE A DESERT.

The Government to Establish a System of Reservoirs in the Arid Region.

The American Agriculturist for July says: "The Government proposes to reclaim a portion of the unproductive lands west of the one-hundredth meridian by a system of dams and artificial lakes, from which large portions of this area can be irrigated. Not only will lands be reclaimed, but the storage of this water will probably do something to prevent the floods which pour down the affluents of the great rivers that thread our Western plains. Congress has been appealed to, and something may be done before long. The area included is 1,300,000 square miles, and it is proposed by Major Powell to procure from Congress $250,000 with which to begin the preliminary work of selecting the sites for dams, reservoirs and canals, ascertain the amount of water susceptible of storage and the loss by evaporation, and estimating the value of lands to be reclaimed, and the crops they would produce. Of the whole area of 1,300,000 square miles, it is thought that at least one-eighth could be made absolutely productive and immensely valuable. The rainfall in this large region varies from five inches in the dryest plains to thirty inches on the mountains, and even to twenty-five or one hundred; and it is thought that the average rainfall of the region to be reclaimed is from fifteen to twenty inches a year. The canyons which it is proposed to dam are deep and narrow cliffs in the rock, and can be easily used as artificial reservoirs. There is a good deal of hopelessness about the scheme, but it will take several years to bring it into actual realization and cost much money."

CURRENT TREES.

A Washoe valley rancher finds that when currant bushes are trimmed up tree fashion and cultivated after the fashion of small trees the fruit produced is about twice the size of that grown on the scrubby bushes stuck away in rows and left to take care of themselves. He now raises currants as large as cherries and expects in time to have them as big as plums.

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR No More Bald Heads.

Restores the color, gloss, and youthful freshness of the hair; stimulates a rich and luxuriant growth; thoroughly cleanses the scalp; prevents dandruff and humors; and is the most cleanly and effective preparation for the hair ever offered to the public. Rev. J. W. Davenport, Illinois Bend, Texas, writes: "Ayer's Hair Vigor, used in my family for several years, has no equal as a dressing, nor for preventing the hair from falling out or turning prematurely gray. It ranks among the first luxuries of our house." Miss Kate Rose, Ingersoll, Ontario, writes: "While keeping my head clear of dandruff, and preventing Scald Head, Ayer's Hair Vigor has also caused my hair to grow luxuriantly, resulting in my now possessing hair forty-two inches long, and as thick as could be desired." The wife of Dr. V. S. Lovelace, Lovelaceville, Ky., had very bad tetter sores upon her head, causing the hair to fall out. Ayer's Hair Vigor healed the sores, and in less than twelve months produced hair a foot long.

To produce a new growth of hair on bald heads, in the case of persons advanced in years, is not always possible. When the glands are decayed and gone, no stimulant can restore them; but, when they are only inactive, the application of Ayer's Hair Vigor will renew their vitality, and a new growth will result. L. V. Templeton, Newbern, N. C., writes: "After a protracted illness, with fever, my hair all came out, leaving me entirely bald. I procured a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, before I had used all its contents, a thick growth of hair, nearly two inches long, covered my head." L. D. McKimlin, Perryville, Md., writes: "Baldness is hereditary in my family. Five years ago the hair on the top of my head was becoming weak and thin. I procured Ayer's Hair Vigor, the application of which invigorated the hair roots, and sent out a new growth of young hair. To-day my hair is as thick and vigorous as ever. I still use the Vigor occasionally to keep my scalp in a healthy condition."

CANT AND SLANG.

An Exhaustive Writer's Observations on These Abuses of Language.

"Cant" was the Gaelic or British word, signifying language—the language, par excellence, of the common people in the olden time before the prevalence of the Teutonic or Anglo-Saxon. From that language the now common slang of the streets, and of the very lowest classes of the population, imitated too extensively in our day by the class immediately above them, and even by those of a still higher grade, is in great part derived.

If proof be needed of the fact, it will be only necessary to cite such words and phrases as "cove," "broke," "beak," "hook it," "do you twig," "masher," "brick," "cut your stick," and scores of others that are but too familiar among the millions both of low and high life.

"Cove," a fellow, a man, a person, is from the Celtic or Keltic caobh—pronounced as v—which signifies courteous, and is synonymous with the vulgar abbreviation of "gent" for gentleman.

"Broke," a term of disrespect and not of courtesy, is from ploc, a large or bull-headed person, and plocach, a big, strong, coarse person.

"Hook it," to be off, to run away, to decamp, is from thugad—th silent—a command to be gone! to go away!

"Beak," a magistrate, is from beached, judgment or a judge.

"Do you twig?" do you understand? is from twig, to understand, and twigs, comprehension.

"Masher," a beau, a dandy, a swell, an exquisite, is probably, though not certainly, from mass, pronounced mash, elegant.

"Brick," the highest encomium paid to a good fellow, is from brigh, spirit, energy, courage and right feeling, and brighell, high spirited and magnanimous.

"Cut your stick," to disappear, to run away, to decamp, is a ludicrous corruption of cut as teach, or "leave the house."

The secret tricks and obscurities of trades and professions of all kinds which are spoken of among themselves by their adepts and practitioners are to a great extent derived from the same ancient sources, although, as these tricks and mysteries were less widely practiced and known in the comparatively primitive times of the Middle Ages, they have become in the keener and less scrupulous age of unlimited and almost desperate competition in which society now grovels and wallows—when it does not growl and fight—cant and slang words were less numerous than they have since become.

The trades and professions of the present day, while preserving many of the old Celtic shibboleths and passwords, have invented or compounded new ones from the Teutonic and latinized English as it has been extended within the last two centuries. As new and more ingenious frauds have been practiced by unscrupulous traders, they have discovered or coined new words and phrases to designate their knaveries.

In the days when milk was sold pure and unadulterated as it came from the cow, there was no necessity to talk of "the cow with the iron tail," or the pump; or of a fabulous "Simson" or "Simpson," whose aid was required to convert milk into milk and water; or for beer, when similarly treated, to be described as "stretched."—Charles Mackay in Blackwood's Magazine.

EVERY NIGHT I SCRATCHED

Until the Skin was Raw. Body Covered with scales like spots of mortar. Cured by the Cuticura Remedies.

I am going to tell you of the extraordinary change your Cuticura Remedies have wrought on me. About the first of April last I noticed some red pimples like coming out all over my body, but thought nothing of it until a few days later, when it began to itch like spots or mortar spots on, and which came off in layers, accompanied with itching. I would scratch very light till I was raw, and then the next night the scales began to form. I was miserable. I was scratched all over the country, but without aid. After giving up all hopes of recovery, I happened to see an advertisement in the newspaper about your Cuticura Remedies, and I bought them from my druggist, and at once, almost immediately, I began to notice that the scales began to drop off and disappear. I had the disease thirteen months before I began to use the Cuticura Remedies, and in four or five days was entirely cured. My face was excruciatingly sore. I recommend the Cuticura Remedies to all in my vicinity, and I know of a great many who have taken them and thank me for the knowledge of them, especially mothers who have babies with scales eruptions on their heads and bodies. I can express my warmest thanks to you for what the Cuticura Remedies have been to me. My body was covered with scales, and I was a awful spectacle to behold. Now my skin is as nice and clear as a baby's.

Feb. 7, 1888.—Not a trace whatever of the disease from which I suffered has shown itself since my cure.

We cannot do justice to the esteem in which Cuticura, the great Skin Cure, and Cuticura Soap, and exquisite Skin Beautifier, prepared from it, and Cuticura Remedy, the new blood purifier, are held by the thousands upon thousands who have been made happy by the cure of agonizing humors, itching, scaly scales, and in four or five days was entirely cured.
